User Guide

11.　　like this...

12.      The  CD Art Display Button ist just a link to you CAD.exe
I don't know where I can get a portable Version of CD Art Display so you must set the path to the application by yourself...

"..\CDArtDisplay\CAD.exe"
That is a relative path

"E:\Tools\CDArtDisplay\CAD.exe"
and that ist the exact path to the application

by the way...
That's the location to my foobar 2000
E:\Tools\FB2K - Silent Night - 2

13. If you want to use CD Art Display download the foo_cdartdisplay.dll

14.     The Artwork

You must change these 3 Lines by yourselfe.
It is not possible to do it with a relative path …

$if($stricmp(%codec%,cdda),E:\Tools\FB2K - Silent Night - 2\components\AudioCD)
$if($not(%length%),E:\Tools\FB2K - Silent Night - 2\components\Radio)
E:\Tools\FB2K - Silent Night – 2\lastfm\artist\%artist%

15.    The no Cover Image

for the no Cover Image you must change this line ...
E:\Tools\FB2K - Silent Night - 2\images\Silent Night\nocover.png

That's it for Now have Fun with Silent Night for FB2K :-)
